

Having someone listen helps me live well with dementia

Here's how you can communicate better with me:

- Maintain eye contact with me when we talk
- Tell me your name to prompt my memory
- Give me more time to ask and answer questions
- Practice a little patience and understanding

Find out more at discrimination.dementia.org.au

A little support makes a big difference

